Product Features

The Yeti Panga Submersible Backpack is an airtight citadel, merging the durability of the Panga Duffel with a tried-and-true backpack design. Its ergonomic DryHaul Shoulder Straps offers extra carrying comfort. The removable chest straps and waist belt provide added stability and security while you trek. And no need to carry it over your head while you wade or blink an eye if left out in the rain, because it's a 100% waterproof gear fortress equipped to outperform any other backpack out there.
