Product Features

The Yeti Rambler 24oz Mug is tall, it's insulated, and with its sizeable handle, it's the beer lover's new drinking buddy. The Yeti take on a beer mug is designed to keep all 24 ounces (that's a lot, by the way) nice and frosty. And unlike glass, the Yeti Rambler 24oz Mug is safe for camp. This stainless steel beer mug is topped with our fan-favourite MagSlider Lid, both of which are dishwasher safe and easy to clean for any basecamp happy hour. While the lid's magnet adds an additional barrier of protection to keep beer cold and in its place, please note — this magnet component is not leakproof and will not prevent the mug from spilling.
